American Liszt Society Festival 2010

Celebrating Chopin and Schumann

April 8-10, 2010

University of Nebraska–Lincoln School of Music

From Artistic Director
Paul Barnes

2010 marks the bicentennial of the birth of two of the greatest composers for the piano, Robert Schumann and Frederic Chopin. The American Liszt Society 2010 Festival will celebrate the contributions of these two great composers at a three-day festival hosted by the University of Nebraska–Lincoln. Featured at the festival will be a unique piano concerto gala on Friday evening at the Lied Center for Performing Arts with world-renowned pianist Arnaldo Cohen performing Liszt's Piano Concerto in E-flat Major with the Lincoln Symphony Orchestra conducted by Edward Polochick. Also featured on the program will be performances of the Chopin F minor concerto performed by Alexandre Dossin and the Schumann Piano Concerto performed by Gila Goldstein.

Pianists from all over the world will be coming to Lincoln to perform including Charles Webb, Evelyne Brancart, Luis de Moura Castro, members of the Korean Liszt Society, and Asaf Zohar of the Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance. Other special events include a Thursday evening piano gala featuring works of Chopin, Liszt, and Schumann including performances of all four Chopin ballades. Inspired by Liszt's unfailing support of new music, the festival will also present the world premier performance of the Hexameron Variations, based on Liszt's own work featuring six composers from New York City and performed by New York pianist Matthew Cameron. The songs and chamber music of Schumann will also be represented in the program as well as engaging lectures probing deep into the issues surrounding much of this great music. The festival concludes with a grand banquet in Polish Style in the great hall of the new Van Brunt Visitor's Center.

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln is proud to host the 2010 American Liszt Society Festival.
